

New Century Drives Gains with Special Ed Students in Tallasse High School

Bobby Abrams, pictured at left, implemented New Century to raise student improvement in two prior schools where he was Principal. When he entered Tallasse High School, he and Ms. Jodie Willis, pictured at right, identified a need for improvement among Special Ed students.

"The New Century program has proven to be an invaluable universal screening tool for Tallasse High School. It allows us to readily address our RtI needs by easily identifying the students for Tier 1, 2, and 3 placement. It also automatically provides the appropriate individual instruction to move each student forward.

Having used New Century for the past year, our Special Education students have achieved large score gains in both math and reading. I heartily recommend New Century as a proven, effective intervention."
